

SUPPORTED DECISION-MAKING TRAININGS

Join us for our online training events to learn how Supported Decision-Making serves as a less restrictive alternative to Guardianship.

Learn how supported decision making allows people with disabilities keep their rights while getting the support they need to live independently.

TRAININGS PROVIDED FOR

- People with disabilities and caregivers
- Social service providers
- Medical professionals
- Education providers
- Legal professionals

CLICK ON THE TRAINING DATE TO REGISTER

PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES, FAMILIES AND CAREGIVERS

For People with disabilities, Families and Caregivers to learn how to create a supported decision making plan.

Aug 7, 2020 from 12:00 - 1:30 pm

Sept 4, 2020 from 12:00 - 1:30 pm

SOCIAL SERVICE PROVIDERS AND ADVOCATES

For Social workers, councilors, case managers and advocates interested in how supported decision making can be applied to their clients life

Aug 14, 2020 from 12:00 - 1:30 pm

EDUCATION PROFESSIONALS

For Education professionals interested in learning how supported decision making can be applied in the school setting

Aug 12, 2020 from 12:00 - 1:30 pm

Sept 19, 2020 from 11:00 am - 12:30 pm

MEDICAL PROVIDERS

For doctors, nurses, and medical social workers interested in learning how supported decision making affects medical care

Sept 10, 2020 from 12:00 - 1:30 pm

LEGAL PROFESSIONALS

For legal professionals interested in how supported decision making affects the legal right to people with disabilities

Sept 21, 2020 from 12:00 - 1:30 pm